Message from the CEO

Pinnacle Partners sincere dedication to insure the success of our clients, investors and partners, has allowed us to develop key global relations in the aviation industry.

Pinnacle Partners passion for innovation and endless strive for excellence have also provided the opportunities to cultivate our business relationships into trusting friendships, which is one of the key elements for a safe, successful and profitable partnership.

Another milestone achievement in 2018 for the Pinnacle Partners team, was successfully converting two Bombardier CRJ200 passenger aircraft to cargo aircraft. This is absolutely the most difficult transaction in the aircraft trading and aircraft maintenance industry.

To support and grow our acquisition and sale programs, Pinnacle Partners obtained multiple credit lines during 2018 totaling over $2,250,000.00 from our aircraft parts & maintenance vendors.

Another record year for the airline industry, with profits at an all-time high and most Airlines on a path to sustained profitability, it is an opportune time to expand our aircraft lease and fleet solution services.

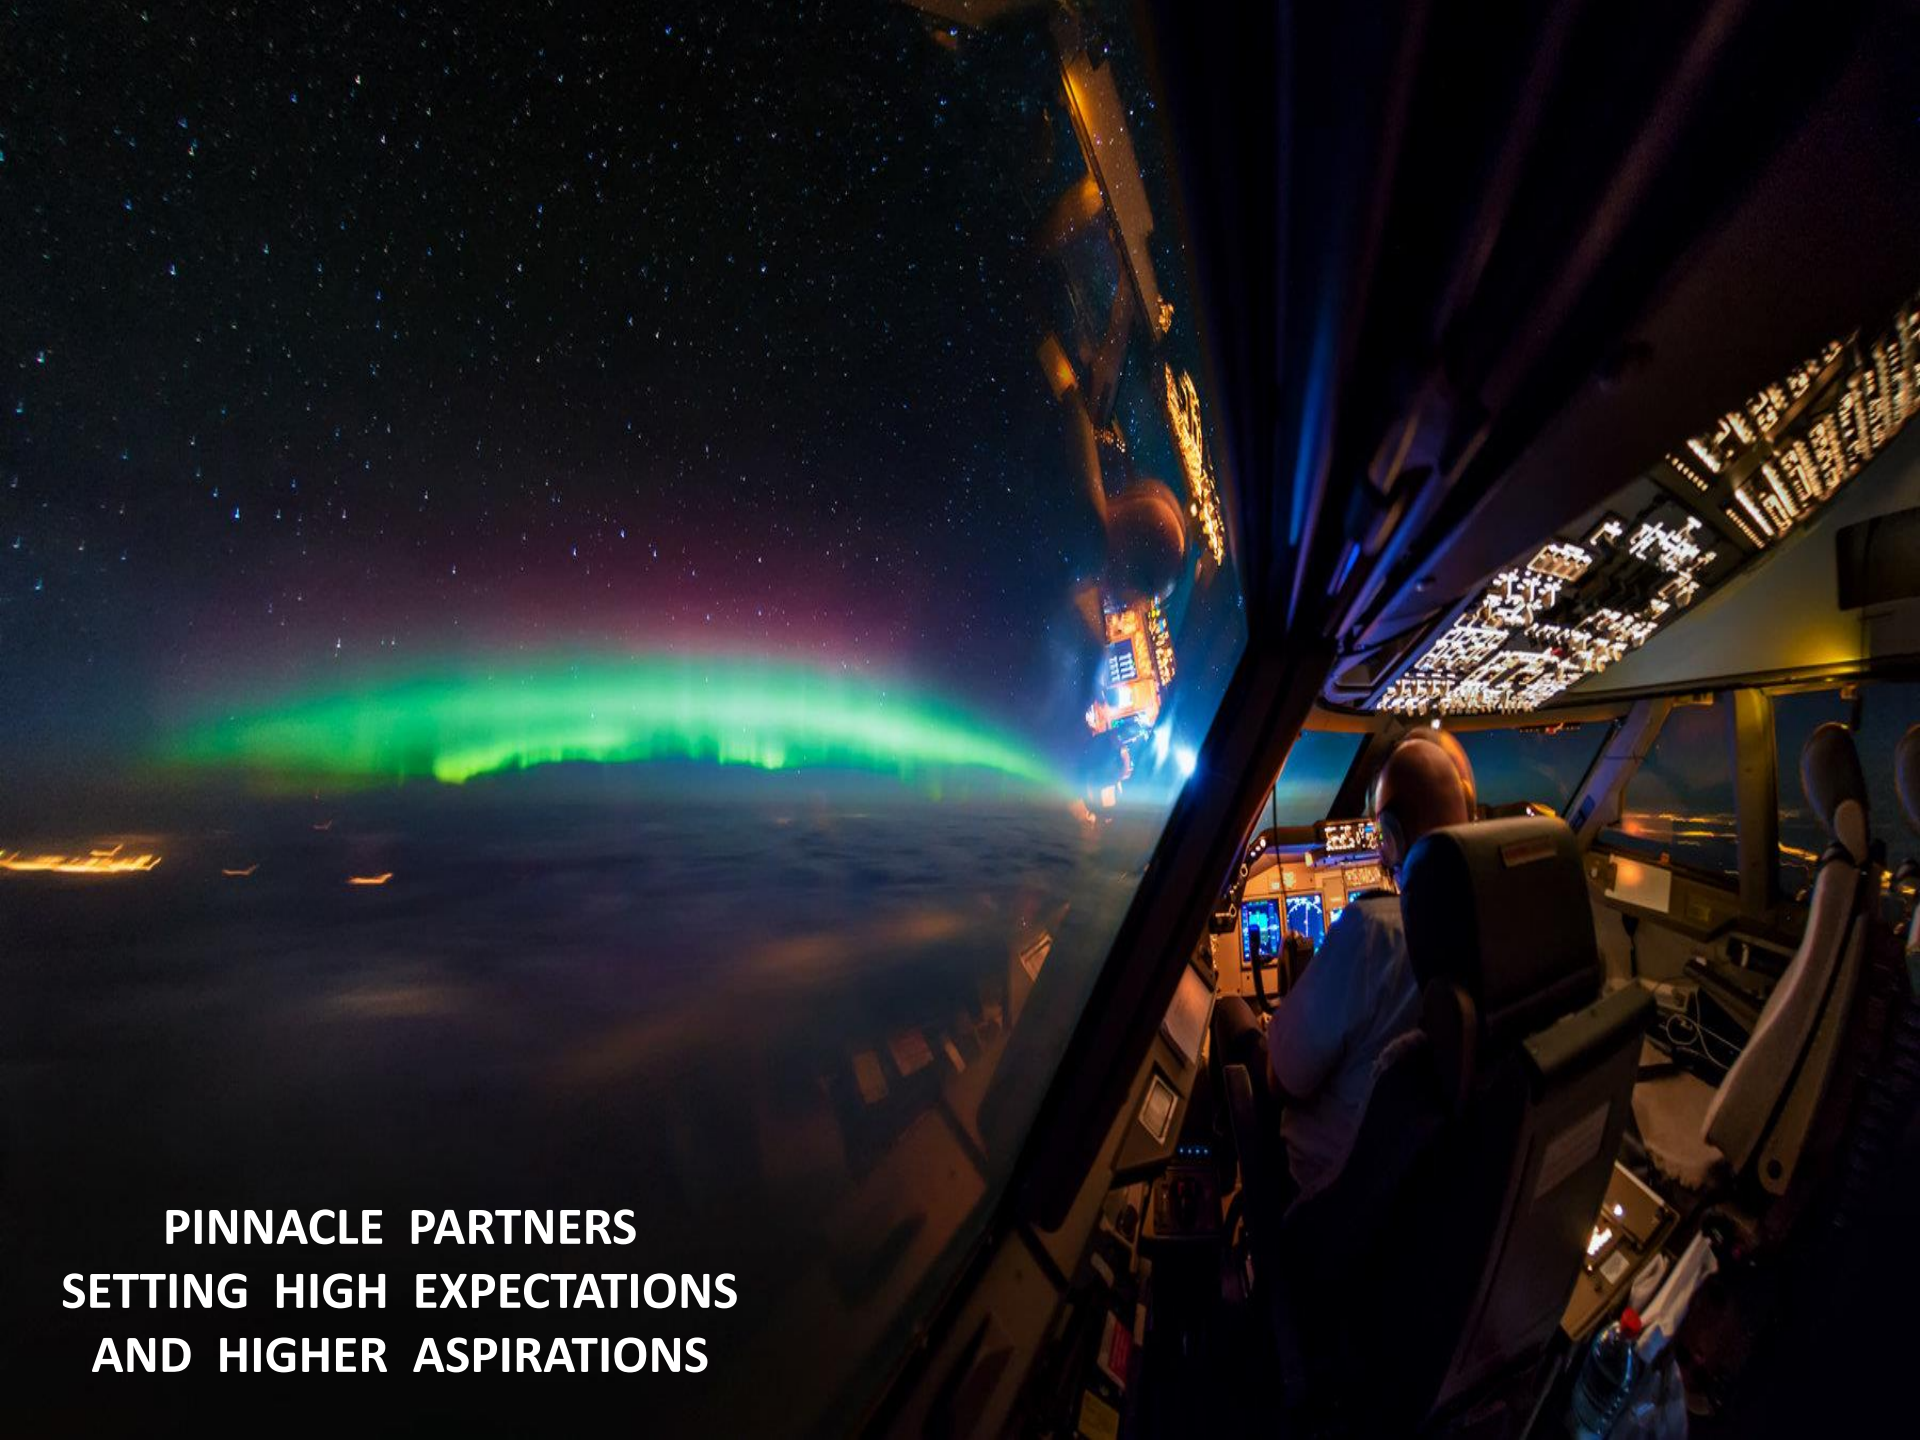

Pinnacle Partners will also be focused on expanding our aircraft maintenance capabilities to lower costs and increase program profitability by launching Nevada Aero Maintenance, the first commercial aircraft maintenance repair and overhaul facility in Nevada. We are honored and privileged to have obtained endorsement letters from Boeing, Delta Airlines and the Nevada Governor.

2019 will be another exciting year with positive growth. Pinnacle Partners has received the contract to supply two additional Boeing 737-400 cargo Aircraft to Alhaya Airlines, the first private cargo airlines of Kurdistan Iraq and two Boeing 737-300 passenger Aircraft to TAM Airlines of Bolivia. This is repeat business, as we previously provided our fleet expansion services to these groups. Target net revenue for these programs are $2.5M.

Looking forward, we are strategically focused on acquiring diverse sources of financing at competitive rates to insure we continue to gain altitude.

Warm Regards & Aloha
Alden Crowley

Air travel Growth

Air travel has proven to be a resilient market, and robust growth is expected to continue in the future. As the industry has evolved from its infancy in the 1940s through the dawn of the jet age, the number of passengers traveling annually has grown from about 100 million in 1960 to just over 1 billion in 1987. It took 18 years to double to 2 billion passengers, only 7 more years to grow to 3 billion and surpassed 4.350 billion in 2018. The upward trajectory is expected to continue, especially in the regions such as China, India, and Southeast Asia as these economies expand and more people choose air travels.

What Drives Air Travel Growth

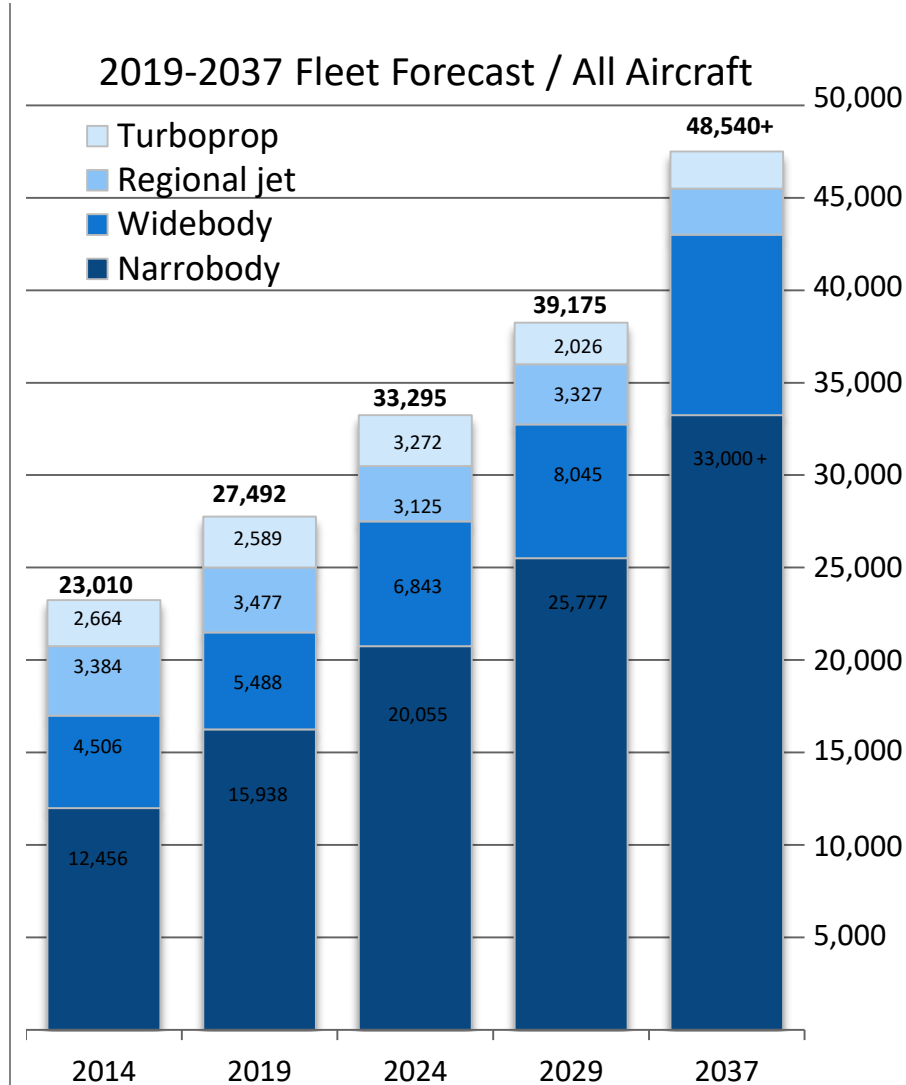

2019-2037 Aircraft Demand & Growth Forecast

As of 2019, there are approximately 27,492 active civil transportation aircraft around the globe.

The global turbine-powered air transportation fleet is expected to grow to an astonishing 32,906 aircraft by 2024 and upwards to 48,540 by 2037, a 6.1 trillion dollar market value.

Narrowbody Aircraft is the majority of the market requirement at 58% in 2019 and will grow to 66% by 2029.

Of the 27,492 aircraft flying around the globe daily, nearly one-third of this fleet is based in North and South America, with 25% of the fleet located in Western and Eastern Europe.

Working in the aviation industry, I am blessed to have the privilege to travel around the world. In 2006, I delivered an empty Boeing 737 commercial aircraft to Cambodia. Only myself and two pilots were on board the aircraft.

Each time I enter a new Country I make sure that I put time aside to visit historical sites. I have visited over 40 countries, seen many different things, but I have never experienced nor had the opportunity to connect emotionally with the children that I was able to spend time with in some of the villages in Cambodia. It inspired me and made me come to the realization that the next aircraft that I deliver will not be empty!

When I got home from Cambodia, I shared this idea with my wife Nadia and family. Knowing how fortunate our child is, seeing how our son is so blessed in every aspect of his life, we wanted to share his Joy with other children around the world. That's what stirred up a passion to dedicate countless hours to positively impact as many unfortunate children and families as we could.

Join our mission!

A photograph taken from the perspective of a pilot in the cockpit of an airplane. The view is looking out through the windshield at a sunset over a large body of water, possibly a bay or a wide river. The sky is a mix of deep blue and orange, with the sun low on the horizon. The water reflects the colors of the sky. In the distance, there are dark silhouettes of land and some lights. The cockpit's instrument panel is visible in the lower right, with several digital displays showing various flight data. The overall mood is serene and professional.
