

Education Programs

Since the start of Another Joy Foundations educational programs in June of 2011, over 1,000,000 books valued at over Fifteen Million US dollars have been distributed in the USA and around the world. The new books consist of assorted library, Pre K to 12th, higher education, medical, science encyclopedias, teacher hand books and art kits. Spanish and English books are also available for the many bilingual schools we support in the USA and in Latin America. Another Joy and our partners plan on distributing over 1,850,000 book to students in need by the end of 2013. Another Joy Foundation is committed to helping students by providing the necessary education material that will insure a brighter future .

Another Joy Foundation delivers thousands of new books, science kits and art kits to St. John Bosco School in San Antonio, Texas.

A New partnership between Another Joy Foundation and the Las Vegas Latin Chamber of commerce (www.lvlcc.com) produces the largest in kind donation The Public Education Foundation (www.thepef.org) has received in their 20 year history. Over 850,000 books were donated and valued at over $8.5M USD. Many student in Las Vegas has and will continue to benefit from the donations. (Visit our Media page to read news paper articles regarding the donation)

All three organizations have now joined to share valuable resources that insure Las Vegas students have the books required to insure a good education.

Approximately 1,500 books were donated to Robert O. Gibson Middle School students as part of the mutual partnership between the Another Joy Foundation, The Las Vegas Latin Chamber of Commerce, and The Public Education Foundation. These students are just a few of the many in the Las Vegas valley benefiting from our new partnership. The Books will be used for special afterschool programs that strengthen students abilities to advance in class.

Another Joy Foundation was recognized at the 2012 Public Education Foundation Scholarship luncheon for donating books valued at over 6.5M USD to Las Vegas graduates and students (6.5M as per the event day). After the event, scholarship recipients were able to choose as many books as they could carry. Thousands of College books were carried home by hundreds of Nevada's brightest young minds. We plan on tripling the book donation for the 2013 event.

Another Joy Foundation has delivered thousands of books, science kits and art kits to St. John Bosco school in San Antonio Texas. We thank Ricardo Quevas, President of CMRJ Aviation Consulting for organizing the delivery and the unloading of the materials.

Another Joy and CMRJ are planning many more deliveries to St. John Bosco school and to other affiliated schools.
